Marion County Prosecutor sporting high heels for awareness

Prosecutor Curry will "Walk a Mile in Her Shoes" to support sexual and domestic violence victims

(Indianapolis, Ind.) On Saturday morning Marion County Prosecutor Terry Curry and staff from the Prosecutor's Office will be participating in Walk a Mile in Her Shoes, a fundraiser for the Marion County Centers of Hope. Along with other men participating in the event, Prosecutor Curry will walk one mile wearing high heel shoes to raise awareness about sexual and intimate partner violence.

Created in 1996, the Centers of Hope operate independently through Marion County hospitals providing compassionate and nonjudgmental services to victims of sexual and domestic violence. The team of forensic nurses and social workers provide crisis counseling, resource referrals, and forensic services vital to the overall integrity of criminal prosecution.

What: Walk a Mile in Her Shoes presented by the Marion County Centers of Hope

When: Saturday, April 25, 2015

Registration: 11:00 a.m.

Walk: 12:00 p.m.

Where: IUPUI at the Wood Plaza Fountain

815 W. New York St.

Indianapolis, IN

Women and children are also invited to participate, but high heels are optional. For more information on the event, please contact the Eskenazi Health Center of Hope at (317) 880-8006.
